MY HOME.

It lies in the peaceful valley,
By loving hills embraced,
And a river flows softly through it,
Like a sash from a beautiful waist;
And the sky that arches over it,
Is bluer, I wren, than elsewhere,
The clouds more soft and airy,
More heavenly sweet the air;

And kindly fancies have scattered,
On hillsides and in glen,
The daisiest flowers and mosses,
Ever trod by the foot of men.
There the birds, the knowing ones, gather,
Red berries and corn and grain,
And seeking no warmer climate,
All through the winter remain.

But my home holds a dearer treasure,
Than bird or blossom or tree—
True hearts are beating near me,
Loved faces I every day see;
And a wreath of human flowers,
A garland of boys and girls,
Make the church-yard bright of a Sunday,
With their roses and lilies and pearls.

I hear their fresh young voices
Floating up in the anthem and hymn,
Like a cloud of visible incense,
Making the far roof dim.
And I think I shall hear them yonder,
In a far more beautiful place,
Where the Saviour will smile upon us
When we see Him face to face.

And there sits my aged father,
His crown of glory on,
Life's battle almost over,
The victory almost won.
He listens to the music
That flows from a daughter's hand,
And his soul takes a journey forward
Into the far-off land.

Loved voices from earth gone forever,
Sound distant and sweet on his ears;
They mingle in jubilant chorals
With angelic choristers.
Oh! when I sit in that church place,
Our nearest, our dearest, our own,
Then, then, I feel that I can here,
Is one spot we can call our home.

'Tis home by the ties of kindred;
'Tis home by the sacred dead;
'Tis home by baptismal water;
'Tis home by the bride's timid tread;
And, most homelike of all, the accents
That fill on our ear day by day,
From the pastor who goes before us,
To lead us and show us the way.

We follow him, though at a distance,
There are angels we cannot overtake,
Who yet live and walk among us,
And their home in this dreary world make.
But there will come a time when the ladder
That stretches 'twixt heaven and men,
Will show us its golden bars,
And we shall be angels then.

But I don't believe in the sunshine
That streams from the throne of God,
We shall ever forget the valley
Where once our footsteps trod.
Dost thou ask the name of this valley—
These hills tops would'st thou see?
We call it the "Happy Valley,"
And there is room for thee.

No One Like a Mother.

A poor old woman lay upon her sick bed in a close, uncomfortable room, with a daughter and little grandchild to take care of her. But who do you think this aged woman called for all the time, and longed to have come and nurse her?

It was "mother"—her own mother.
"Oh, there's nobody like mother to take care of you when you are sick," she said.

A person present asked her how long her mother had been dead.
"About fifty years, I reckon," she answered.

Do you think you will remember your mother's loving care for fifty years? No doubt you will, if God spares your life. You may think but little of it now, but you will think a great deal of it then. This woman's children and grand-children had grown up about her, but her heart reached back over all that waste of years to the time when she was a child at her mother's side.

It was for "mother, mother," that our poor boys in tent and hospital, called and prayed, when sick and wounded, they were laid down to die.

Oh, there is nobody like a mother in love and care for us. What return are you making her every day for all she does for you? Do your feet run willingly to do her bidding as soon as it is known? Do you try to save her trouble, and lighten all her burdens? Oh, nothing in this world can do it so effectually as to know that her children are growing up good, and noble, and useful, in the world.

Radical Dictionary.

The advent of the Radical party in this country has not only caused a revolution in its government, but a reversal of the meaning of a few of the words. We give the definition of a few of the latter as interpreted by the Radicals themselves:

Amendments—Striking the word "white" out of the State Constitution wherever it occurs.
American citizens of African descent—Superior beings whose ancestors came from the wilds of Africa.

Confiscation—Appropriating public property to private use, vide Cameron, Dorsey, and synonymous to Ben. Butlerism.

Congress—A body composed of the riff-raff of the country, who break their oaths, pledges and promises at $5,900 per term.

Department—A small display of one man's power.
Decency—The language commonly used by the Radical papers.

Equality—Taxing the laboring man and exempting the rich bondholder.
Economy—Voting soldiers $100 bounty and giving the negro bureau $12,000,000; to the military despots $35,000,000; to the monopolists a like amount; to National banks $20,000,000, and to untaxed bondholders $160,000,000.

Freedmen—the privileged class of the South, principally ignorant negroes and mean whites.
Free Speech—To talk as military commanders dictate.

Free Press—Freedom to rob it when it speaks of Radicalism.
Gratitude—Voting thanks to soldiers and stealing $800,000 from the fund for the families of their deceased and maimed comrades.

Honor—Kicking a disarmed and fallen foe.
Honesty—Talking on economy to the people and stealing millions from the public treasury.

Impartial Suffrage—Enfranchising the negroes and making aliens of white men.
Inalienable Rights—The right to make slaves of $900,000 of white people.

Judiciary—A useless body of judges at high salaries to uphold unconstitutional laws.
Justice—Hanging innocent women and honoring such men as Stanton, Holt, Butler, &c.

Loyalty—A commodity used by broken down hacks and demagogues to gull the people whilst saddling them with debt and taxation; violating the constitution and laws for partisan purposes.
Morality—Violation of pledges and gratifying revengeful feelings on a toe and people who can no longer protect themselves.

National Blessing—Jay Cooke & Co., making $12,000,000 out of the sale of Government bonds.
Objects of the War—To make voters of the negroes and rulers over the Southern States.

Patriotism—Extolling the Government whilst destroying its fundamental laws; a cloak for thieves, swindlers and contractors to filch the National treasury.
Prejudice—Believing the white man better able to govern the country than the ignorant negro.

Protection—Giving New England manufacturers fifty per cent profit at the expense of the South and West.
President—An officer elected by the people and controlled by the rump-tailed Congress.

Reconstruction—Placing ten States under the government of negroes.
Republican Form of Government—A government formed by a majority of the people.
Radical—An insane biped, having no reason or argument, but entirely devoted to the gratification of prejudice and fanaticism and determined to rule or ruin.

Kentucky Riflemen.

The renown which Kentucky riflemen have acquired for precision and skill in handling the rifle has become worldwide, and excited the attention and wonder of the warriors of other nations. In battle they have stood as cool and collected, although the first time in action, as the oldest veterans in Europe, pouring in their deadly fire with unerring aim.

"I shot that officer," exclaimed the rifleman, as he saw an officer fall at New Orleans.
"I shot him in the right eye," replied the other rifleman.

"And I shot him in the left eye," was the response.
After the battle it was found that an officer had been shot in both eyes. The unerring precision can only be obtained by long practice and thorough drilling.

At the first settlement of the State they were compelled to be constantly under arms, as it were, to guard against the wild Indians' murderous tomahawk. As the father, so the child grew up, taught in the earliest infancy possible to poise the rifle and direct its aim. As ammunition was not always convenient to be had, the father would dole out his son a certain number of cartridges for his rifle, for each of which he must bring home some game, or get a taste of hickory for every missing shot.

Many years ago I was conversing with my father on the wonderful skill of the Kentuckians, when he related the following story:
I was out in the wilds of Kentucky in her early days on a surveying expedition, and I had an opportunity of studying the character of the earliest settlers for a considerable length of time. It became necessary for me to stop a few days at a log tavern, and to while away the time I took my rifle and explored the woods for game, of which there was an abundance. The landlord had a little son, about ten years of age, who accompanied me with his rifle, and always had extremely good luck. On one occasion the fates seemed adverse to him, for perceiving a squirrel on a very high branch of a tree, he up with his rifle and blazed away, and down came the squirrel. The look of dismay with which he viewed the game I never shall forget. Dropping the butt of his rifle on the ground he burst into tears. In the utmost surprise, I enquired what the matter was.

"Daddy'll lick me,"
"Lick you, for what?"
"Because I did not hit him in the eye."

I soothed him all I could, but the days pleasure was over.
On returning to the tavern I interceded for him all in my power to save him from the hickory, but it was of no use; the application must be made if only for example.

"No, no, stranger, if I let him off I break a standing rule of our State. I was never let off, and what was good for me is good for him. He must shoot right or put up with what he gets."

The hickory was applied, but no bones broken. Such training as that which was universal in those parts; tells the secret of Kentucky rifle shooting.

Mr. Charles Smith has a fowl of the fen ale persuasion, which to all appearances is a rooster. In April last this remarkable hen commenced changing its color, we would also say commenced changing its sex, were it not for the fact that it has recently laid a litter of eggs and is now setting upon them. Originally of a mixed color, brown and black, it changed to the coarse yellow and red so common to the males, and is now so far as one can determine by looks as genuine a rooster as ever flapped a wing or crowed at break of day.

Not even the long, gracefully curling tail feathers are wanting to perfect the resemblance. All who see it, at once pronounce it a rooster, and can scarcely believe that it was once an ordinary looking hen. This transformation in color and appearance is certainly remarkable. Many of our citizens have been out to see "the rooster that laid eggs and is going to hatch a brood of chickens." It is, without a doubt, a curiosity, but since the Michigan woman changed into a man, we ought not to be astonished at any wild freak that nature may see fit to play.—Geo. Times.

Two men in Paris, Ill., who perilled their lives to save a drowning woman who had leaped from the bridge, were savagely abused by her sisters, that they did not let her drown.

The prettiest neck-tie for a lady—the arms of her baby.
A very unpopular officer with the ladies—General Howe-work.

Esteem is the mother of love, but the daughter is often older than the daughter.

The reason why some people put on airs is because they have nothing else to put on.

"Thou rainest in this bosom," as the chap said when the basin of water was thrown over him by a lady he was serenading.

The damsel who is accused of breaking a young man's heart, has been bound over in the bonds of matrimony to keep the pieces.

At what time of life may a man be said to belong to the vegetable kingdom? When long experience has made him sage.

What is the difference between the entrance to a barn and an over-talkative person? One is a barn door, and the other a darn bore.

A young lady just married in New York had 54 pairs of shoes to match 24 dresses. She was a whole-sonled maiden.

In Cleveland there are females who fasten shoes to their hoops while the clerk is looking for another pair, and walk off with the booties.

"What would you be dearest," said Walter to his sweet-heart, "if I were to press the seal of love upon those sealing-wax lips?" "I should be stationary."

A very sensible woman, who is going to Europe, desires when her husband's name and her own are published in the list of passengers, it shall be "Mr. — and wife, not lady, for he goes abroad with his own lawful wife, and nobody else."

"I would not marry a western man if I had to live an old maid all my life," exclaimed a buxom country lass. "Why not?" demanded her astonished companions. "Because every paper you pick up contains an account of the failure of the western mails."

An Intelligent "Colored Member."

A correspondent writing from New Orleans, relates the following incident illustrative of the intelligence and personal importance of a negro member of the Louisiana Black-and-Tan Convention:

Upon entering the car at Ponchartroula, on the 2d instant, for New Orleans, on the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad, the first thing I saw was Bill Butler, a nigger member of the menagerie, occupying a seat near the stove, leisurely pretending to read a newspaper upside down, every now and then casting a contemptuous glance at a number of passengers, who kept up a perfect titter at his stupidity.

Finally finding the whole car had caught the same cue, and all eyes were turned upon him, he furiously put on the cap sheat by demanding, in a very angry manner: "I want you to understand I see none of your common niggers; I've one ob de convention members, and I order you all to stop laughing in my presence." This only increased the mirth, and a general yell was the result. This infuriated the darkey, and he left the car, soon appearing with the conductor who, when told the joke, heartily joined in the laugh himself, at the same time telling the delegate if he was not satisfied with the passengers in that car, he could repair further forward to the car allotted for negroes, which invitation Bill declined to accept, and folded up his paper.

Neuralgia.
We clip from the Alta Californian a receipt for the cure of Neuralgia, which the editor of that paper claims to have been effective in several cases of his own knowledge. He says:

Some time ago we published, at the request of a friend, a receipt to cure neuralgia: Half a drachm of sal ammonia in an ounce of camphor water, to be taken, a teaspoonful at a dose, and to be repeated several times at intervals of five minutes, if the pain be not relieved at once. Half a dozen different persons have since tried the receipt, and in every case an immediate cure has been effected. In one, the sufferer, a lady, had been affected for more than a week, and her physician was unable to alleviate her sufferings, when a solution of sal ammonia in camphor water relieved her in a few minutes.

Cynthiana Precinct.

The Democratic voters of the Cynthiana Precinct, are hereby notified that a meeting will be held at the Court-house in Cynthiana, April 11, 1868, at 2 o'clock, p.m., to choose delegates to a nominating convention to be held on the 18th of April.

The Situation.

Our last information from Washington, amounts to nothing, on general principles. The Radicals still hold up to their impeachment notions, and the President is going to make an attempt to save himself according to the constitution. He has an eye to that instrument yet, while his enemies have long since voted it a humbug and a nuisance. They intend to try him according to the platform of their party, and displace him because they hate him. We consider that all right, if he permits them to do so, without a murmur, as he most undoubtedly will.

The other day the Senate gave him ten days time to prepare his defense. That was believed to be a very generous grant on the part of the Senate. We don't believe he should have ten days. If his impeachment is a settled matter, and it is his intention to submit to it, why off with his head as quick as possible, and let another radical be put in his place.

Senator Wade, from Ohio, will make the old government tremble. He can run the old shell without constitution or anything else. We say let him run her. He will head her up towards Africa, or he can take Africa and head her up toward America. One thing is certain, he intends to ride white people down with the nigger, and we have no doubt that the spectacle will be a pleasing one. There can be no objection to such a move, for white people readily submit to it, and consider it just and proper.

Take the situation, all in all, the prospect pleases us very much. Hurrah for sambo. Wade will yet be the nigger's Moses, and teach them that they are the superiors of the white race—yes,

The fair haired colored man
From the State of Africa,
He takes his seat among the whites,
And has it all to say.

Who is he that would not sing
Of glory to our negro nation?
Let him be anathema marnatha, who Sees no pleasure in the triumphant ascendancy of Africa over America—who has not enough of the milk of human kindness in his heart to weep for joy to see the negroization of a white man's government. "Vox populi vox dei," therefore it is right.

White people need but few rights and those they don't care to assert.
When we first came to a knowledge of ourself, we remember to have heard politicians declare from the stump, that this government secured to those who paid taxes, "life," liberty and property." Now, it is "life and property" only. "Just give me my greenback, says the white man of today, and let me live and I care not how contemptible or dishonorable soever it be—I'll ask no more—I'll pay all taxes demanded—I'll vote for negro representatives, or negro Presidents—in fact I never did believe that a white man was half as good as a negro."

This is indeed a pleasing condition of affairs, and we confess that the whole programme laid down by the free-nigger party, presents us a captivating and glorious future. We hope that we may yet fall in love with all their beautiful acts, and live to love the nigger after the manner of the abolitionist

Grant on Poetry.

J. R. Grant, the father of Gen. U. S. Grant, being applied to by Robert Bonner, proprietor of the "New York Ledger," for a photograph of himself as an accompaniment of his biography of his son, sends to Bonner his photograph and also some lines which he had prepared and transmitted to a young lady at Washington City, who had made a similar request. The following are the lines published in the Ledger:

Miss G., my kind, good friend,
As you request, I herewith send,
A neatly taken photograph.
Of Mistress Grant, my better half.
The picture is good, the likeness true,
Which I now present to you,
I also send you one of mine
Though that indeed is not so fine.
This was taken four years ago,
Before I let my whiskers grow,
And to you may now look wrong,
But right to those who've known me long.
My best respects, I herewith send,
To you and to your room-mate friend,
And say to both, for what you want,
Just send your card to J. R. Grant.

We are rejoiced that this poem of the illustrious poet and father, have been put in "print," because it enables us to solve the very interesting problem of the authorship of the popular juvenile poems of "Pudding-and-Tame." The General's father must certainly be the author of it. The solution of this problem having been made by us, we leave the Maccauley's and others to guess who wrote the letters of Junius.

Democratic Convention.

There will be a convention of the Democrats of Harrison county, at the Court house in Cynthiana, on Saturday, the 18th day of April, 1868, at one o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Sheriff, and Circuit Court Clerk, and at the same time and place to appoint delegates to attend a convention to be called for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Circuit Court Judge, and Commonwealth's Attorney, for this judicial district.

The precinct committees will give notice at once, of a meeting of the Democratic voters of their respective precincts at the place of holding the elections in said precincts, on Saturday, April 11, 1868, for the purpose of choosing delegates to attend the convention aforesaid, to nominate a candidate for sheriff and circuit court clerk, and the voters of each precinct shall determine the manner of choosing said delegates.

The basis of representation to the convention, will be the Helm vote, and one delegate for every fifty votes cast for Helm, and one for every fraction over twenty-five. This will give to Cynthiana	267	7 votes.

Democrats Triumphant in Lexington.

At a municipal election recently held in Lexington, the Democracy swept everything before them. Every candidate nominated by the party, was triumphantly elected. Dr. J. G. Chinn, the Democratic candidate for Mayor, defeated his opponent Mr. Bruce, by a majority of 347. We are glad to know that Lexington has at last become fit for white people to live in. The people are displacing radical office holders everywhere in this State.

The incorporators, and those feeling an interest in the subject of a New Cemetery, will meet promptly on Saturday, March 28, at two o'clock, for the purpose of organizing under the charter granted by the last Legislature. The following are the incorporators, every one of whom should be prompt in their attendance:

L. Desha, A. H. Ward, J. S. Boyd, I. T. Martin, C. T. Delling, J. S. Withers, T. J. Megibben, L. Day, T. V. Ashbrook, H. W. Thornton, J. W. Peck, W. W. Trimble, W. S. Haviland, A. ANNUAL MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.—The thirteenth annual meeting of this Society will be held in Danville, commencing on Tuesday, 7th April proximo. All members of the medical profession in good standing in the State, are invited. The hospitalities of the citizens of the place will be freely extended to all. Arrangements have been made with the various rail road lines to furnish half-fare tickets. On the night of the 7th proximo, a banquet will be given the delegates by the Boyle County Medical Society.—Danville Advo.ate.

A lawyer once came into court drunk, when the judge said to him: "Sir, I am sorry to see you in a situation which is a disgrace to yourself and family, the court and profession to which you belong." This reproach elicited the following colloquy: "Did your honor speak to me?" "I did, sir; I said, sir, that in my opinion you disgrace yourself and family, the court and your profession by your course of conduct." "May it please your honor, I have been an attorney in this court for the last fifteen years; and permit me to say, your honor, that this is the first correct opinion I ever knew you to give."

A man named Jno. B. Fenton was indicted by the Grand Jury for attempting to burn the house he lived in and which he rented from the Executors of Mr. Reed. His counsel, H. B. Higgins, Esq. raised the point that arson—the burning of a dwelling house—cannot be committed by the owner or lessee of the house burnt and that the attempt to burn is not an offense under our statute. The judge decided that the point was well taken—that the offense was not included in the statutes, but was a misdemeanor at common law punishable only by fine and imprisonment. The jury sentenced him to four months imprisonment and to pay $100 fine. We believe the decision correct; but it is a defect in our Statute which should be remedied. There is no penalty prescribed for him who burns his house to defraud Insurance Companies; nor for a lessee, who deliberately sets fire to his landlord's house.—Lexington Obs. & Rep.

The Covington Journal says: Something of a sensation was created in Covington last evening by a runaway marriage. The young gentleman—(Mr. H—m B—n) is connected with one of the bonded warehouses in this city; the lady (Miss H—r) is young, beautiful and accomplished. It is a repetition of the old story of Love overcoming all obstacles. The young people were devotedly attached to each other. The father of the young lady wouldn't listen to the pleadings of the ardent suitor, and forbid him the house. The lovers found means of communicating with each other and yesterday consummated it in Cincinnati, despite all efforts of unwilling parents to prevent it. We trust all parties will become reconciled, and heartily tender the young couple our good wishes for their happiness and prosperity.

There is only one case from Bourbon county on the docket of the Court of Appeals.

HYMEN.—Hymen was a young man of Athens, obscurely born but extremely handsome. Falling in love with a lady of rank, he disguised himself in female attire, the better to carry on his amour; and as he was one day on the seashore celebrating the Efensianian rites with his mistress and her female companions, a gang of pirates came upon them by surprise and carried them off to a distant island, where the pilots got drunk for joy and fell asleep. Hymen then armed the virgins and dispatched the sleeping pirates, when leaving the island, he sped to Athens where he told his adventure, and demanded his beloved in marriage as her ransom. His request was granted and so fortunate was the marriage that the name of Hymen was ever after invoked on subsequent nuptials; and in the progress of time the Greeks enrolled him among their gods.

"Corry O' Lanus" says Andrew Johnson is to be impeached for "reasons," and he states them in order. He then refers to the history of the Radical party:

For being Andrew Johnson.
For aggravating Congress by referring to an obsolete document, known as the Constitution of the United States.

For insisting that the Union has not been dissolved.

For asserting that a white man is as good as a colored man.

For maintaining that the President has a right to exercise powers conferred upon the office by the aforesaid Constitution.

Because Alabama didn't swallow the black draught of the Radical Constitution.

For violating the law against cruelty to animals, in trying to kick a dirty dog out of the War office.

WHAT IS A SNOB?—A London paper gives a brief definition of snobishness. "The essence of snobishness and vulgarity is nothing more or less than display, designed to create in other persons minds a belief that you are different from what you really are, better born, better bred, richer, more clever, or more accomplished. On the other hand, it is the perfect truthfulness and modesty, which results from the absence of desire to impose upon his companions, which makes a man a gentleman."

Never go to a merchant's store who don't advertise. Bear in mind such a man is stingy; he will squeeze the last cent out of your pocket, and sell every article higher than the one who advertises and lets the world know whether he is keeping pace with the times. Never go to a man who does not invite you.

Covington Markets.

CATTLE.—The supply of cattle is light, and prices continue about the same as quoted in our last report, viz: $5 to 8 per 100 lbs.
SHEEP.—There is a good demand for sheep. Prices ranging from 4 to 6 dollars per 100 pounds.
HOGS.—The market is quiet, with prices ranging from 75 to 90 cents per 100 lbs.

NOTICE.—In the District Court of the United States. For the District of Kentucky.

In the matter of SAMUEL F. JANUARY, a Bankrupt.

I hereby give notice of my appointment as assignee of Samuel F. January of Cynthiana, in the county of Harrison, and State of Kentucky, within said district, who has been adjudged a bankrupt upon his own petition, by the District Court of said district.

Debility and Emaciation.

Both result from the lack of ability to convert the food into nutriment. How necessary, then, for those suffering from these alarming symptoms to immediately resort to a remedy that will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs. For, as soon as this desirable object has been accomplished, the health improves, and the patient resumes his usual personal appearance. HOSSETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have obtained a world-wide popularity in such cases, and have been proven the best and safest means of removing constipation, toning the stomach, giving energy to the liver and relieving every symptom of nervousness and depression of spirits. Its cheering and beneficial effects are highly spoken of by thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health. No restorative in the annals of medicine has attained the same popularity in the short space of time it has been before the public, or has won the high endorsements accorded to this excellent tonic. Many other preparations, purporting to be correctives and restoratives, have been introduced, and have perished one by one, while the popularity of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters continues to increase, and is now recognized as a standard household medicine. The success which attends the use of the Bitters evinces at once its virtues in all cases of debility and diseases of the stomach. Certificates, almost without number, have been published, attesting its truly miraculous power in removing those painful and fearful diseases. And at this time it seems idle to do more than call attention to the great remedy of the age, in order to awaken public attention to its excellence. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted.

REEVE'S AMBROSIA
FOR THE HAIR
IMPROVED,
The experience of over 100 years in the cultivation and preservation of the hair, is now embodied in this widely known preparation. For dressing, curling and preserving the hair, it has no equal in the world. Three or four applications will stop the hair from falling off, and if used occasionally, it will prevent hair losing its original color during a life time. No preparation equals it for restoring the hair quickly; and no preparation has been more extensively endorsed by the medical faculty for its perfect innocence as regards injury to the hair or head and for its tonic effects upon the system. Price, large bottles $1. Druggists, dealers in fancy goods and storekeepers generally liberally dealt with. Retail in all parts of the United States, Canada, &c. Address SECRETARY REEVE'S AMBROSIA Co., Feb 13-ly New York.

COAL, COAL.

Buy Campbell's Creek semi-Cannel Coal, from Kanawha River West Va.

BY the "analysis" given it in thousands of grades, furnaces and stoves, it has been found that the whole will be consumed, LEAVING NO CINDER,

And only sufficient ashes to cover the fire for keeping through the night.

For grates, stoves and furnaces it fully equals the Youghiogheny, and by most persons is preferred.

It neither runs together nor breaks into small pieces as the other and thereby Causing Waste.

It is cheaper in price than Youghiogheny and goes fully as far.

BUY IT!

Mr. D. W. Case will preach next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., on the Apostolic Succession.

Last Tuesday was "St. Patrick's Day," and the friends of Pat Maloy celebrated the day appropriately.

The Cynthiana cornet band will accept the thanks of the historic society, for their assistance at the recent exhibitions.

The "Maiden City Club," is the name of the new Base Ball Association of young men, in this city.

We have been informed that the post office at this place, will be made a postal money order office soon.

Messrs. Amenda, Kennard, Wall, and others, of this city, will accept the thanks of the historic society, for the excellent music which they furnished at the exhibitions recently given in this city.

Our friend, Patrick Fitzpatrick, is building a four story rock house for Cook & Ashbrook, near their distillery, which is intended for a whisky ware house. Its dimensions are such that four thousand barrels can be stowed away in it.

Mrs. Meeker, the author of "Kernwood, or after many days," is in Cynthiana, distributing her book to subscribers. It is an interesting work neatly and beautifully printed, and bound in leather, by Morton & Co., Louisville. No Eastern printed book can compare with "Kernwood."

The people of the Methodist church of this city, have authorized us to return their thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Rankin, of the Rankin House, for the kindness they have displayed and the assistance rendered at the ladies' supper last Friday night.

Mr. Robert Hayman, of Newport, called on us last week. He is a staunch and firm Democrat, and among that class of men, who do not fear to express their sentiments on all subjects. Mr. Hayman built several brick houses in this city, last fall. We hope he may find it convenient to locate in this city.

Dr. J. W. Woodford has returned from Virginia, to his old stand in Leesburg. The doctor is welcome to his old home and friends, for none of our acquaintance is more faithful to them and his principles than he. May he always find the world agreeable, and live as long as he desires.

We understand that an omnibus line will soon be opened between this city and Claysville, and from thence to Augusta, Bracken county. And another between this city and Carlisle, Sharpshurg and Owensville. We shall soon have a half dozen stage lines running into the "City of Maidens."

It is our belief that the streets of Cynthiana, are deeper in mud than we have ever seen them. The marsh's pay as little attention to the side-walks as a black-bird pays to the moon. Wagons and horses are tied to the fences on the sidewalks, and no fines imposed. We need new men for business.

Dr. W. C. Dillard, Surgeon Dentist, will visit Cynthiana, on the first of April and will remain about three weeks. Any persons needing his services can see him at his old partners office, where he will be pleased to see his friends.

Mr. F. M. Gray, the Baker and Confectioner, on Pike street, has a suggestive as well as enterprising genius. We stepped into his store the other day, and he had just put up in a pleasing style three wedding or party cakes, which could not be surpassed in elegance. That is the place to buy your fine supplies for matrimonial or other purposes.

Our polite and affable friend, Mr. Shaughnessy, of the Stone Front, has become very noted as the most fashionable cutter of gents' wearing apparel, in this country. He most certainly puts up the best looking, as well as the best setting suits of clothes worn on our streets—and besides that he will have his suits ready according to agreement. He is now in Cincinnati preparing himself for the spring fashions, and will return in a few days well versed in new fashions.

The Georgetown Times says, there is a rooster in Scott county, that has laid 18 eggs, and is now setting upon them.

Mr. C. G. Land is disposing of his dry goods at greatly reduced prices. In fact he will sell his calico and ladies dress patterns to suit purchasers. His gents' furnishing goods he offers very low. dec26 CRIMINAL COURT.—Last Tuesday the criminal court commenced its spring session, at this place, with Judge Arthur on the bench. Charles Duncan, the prosecuting attorney, is on hands attending to business; and bringing law breakers to punishment and grief.

Mr. Frisbie, the Depot Agent at this place, is an enterprising man. He has recently purchased from Mr. Fairbanks, of Cincinnati, a most complete pair of scales in this or any other world. In fact, we consider the affair quite an accommodation to the farming community. Mr. Frisbie is prepared at all times to weigh stock, hay and grain. Go and examine his arrangements.

Cyrus Cook is making much fuss up at his new distillery, in the upper end of town. He has a locomotive whistle attached to his new engine, and he has been blowing it too much, and we have been led to the depot before the hour for the cars to arrive, which was provoking. He is making thirty barrels of whisky per day. That is all right, but don't put on airs, and "don't blow your horn so much."

NOTICE.—A punctual man is rarely a very poor man, and never a man of doubtful credit. His small accounts are frequently settled, and he never meets with difficulty in raising money to pay large demands. Small debts neglected ruin credit; and when a man has lost that, he will find himself at the bottom of a hill he cannot ascend.

Now, gentlemen, please come forward, and settle your small accounts, with yours, C. T. DEDLING. Feb6-6t

Cynthiana Flour Mills.

Our friend, G. R. Sharpe, Esq., has taken possession of the mills which he purchased from Peck & Vanhook, of this city. There are in the establishment three run of stone, which are employed on custom grinding continually. 'Tis said that no concern of the kind in Kentucky makes better flour. The mill is in fine running trim, and the millers say they can turn out any amount of flour. The millers are experienced, and the turnout good.

Connected with the flouring business, is a large and complete woolen factory, where every character of jeans, linseys, &c., are made.

Almost a Rape Case.

Last Monday, a negro named Sam. Reneker, a large a dusky Ethiopian was caught chasing the wife of Mr. Kearns, who lives about five miles North of this place. The first report that reached us, about the heinous act, was that the negro had caught the woman and threw her down—but we subsequently received information that he was only pursuing her with threatening words and gesticulations as to his purpose. The negro was arrested and brought to Cynthiana on the same evening, by Mr. Kearns, the husband of the woman the negro was pursuing.

It is our opinion that any white or black man, who is caught committing a rape, or attempting to commit a sin so contemptible, should lose his life without law or christian burial, and as violently as death could be administered, but it should be done by the male relations of the injured woman. In this case we find the husband bringing the negro to jail in an undisturbed and quiet manner.

The members of the "Mind your own Business Society" of Cynthiana, propose for consideration the following questions, and hope an answer may be given:

Is it anybody's business
If a gentleman should choose
To wait upon a lady
If the lady don't refuse?
Or, to speak a little plainer,
That the meaning all may know,
Is it anybody's business
If a lady has a beau?
Is it anybody's business
When the gentleman does call,
Or when he leaves the lady,
Or if he leaves at all?
Or is it necessary

That the curtain should be drawn,
To save from further trouble
THE OUTSIDE LOOKERS ON?

Is it anybody's business
But the lady's, if her beau
Rides out with other ladies,
And doesn't let her know?
Is it anybody's business
But the gentleman's, if she Should accept an other escort,
When he doesn't chance to be?

Is a person on the sidewalk,
Whether great or whether small;
Is it anybody's business
Where that person means to call?
Or if you see a person
And he's calling anywhere,
Is it any of your business
What his business may be there?

The substance of your query,
Simply stated would be this:
Is it anybody's business
What another's business is?
If it is or if it isn't,
We would really like to know,
For we're certain if it isn't
There are some who make it so.

If it is, we'll join the rabble,
And act the nobler part
Of the tatters and defamers,
Who through the public maw;
But if not we'll act the teacher,
Until the meddler learns
It were better in the future
To mind his own concerns.

MARRIED.

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY, One of the Best Hotel Stands in Kentucky, FOR SALE.

IT WILL BE REMEMBERED that last summer I advertised my Hotel for sale. It was then, and still believed by many, that I would not sell it, even if I was offered my price for it. Such is not the fact. I have determined to quit the hotel business and move to the country. I will on the 11th Day of May next, (It being County-Court Day,) offer for sale to the highest bidder, my HOTEL, and all of the Furniture, and fixtures belonging to it, if not sold privately before.

It would be unnecessary for me to say anything in reference to the reputation of the house, as it is well known to be one of the best hotels in the interior of Kentucky, with a much larger run of custom, both transient and boarders than any house ever kept in Cynthiana. The house is capable of accommodating 200 persons, and all in good repair. The house is entirely new and built of the best material, upon the best foundation of any house in the county, with cellars 8 feet deep under the entire building. There is upon the premises a well of never-failing water, and a cistern that holds 600 barrels of water, also the largest ice-house in the county full of ice. There is also an elegant barbe-shop in the basement. The lot upon which the hotel stands is about 110 feet front by 208 feet deep. I will also at the same time and place sell one lot on Pike street 21 feet front by 104 feet deep, adjoining the lot upon which Judge Curry is preparing to erect a beautiful residence. Also, the following described lots, viz:

4 lots on Pike street 23 feet front by 104 feet deep;
1 lot on Pike street 25 feet front by 104 feet deep;
1 lot on Pike street 30 feet front by 104 feet deep.

Also 1 lot on Walnut street 52 feet front by 91 feet deep with a comfortable brick and frame residence, with 4 rooms. This will make a desirable home for a small family. Also one lot adjoining the above, 52 feet front by 91 feet deep; this lot has no improvements upon it except a small stable.

I would say for the benefit of the purchaser of this Hotel, that the receipts of the house for one year will pay over 25 per cent. more than I am willing to take for the lot and all the fixtures.

Those who wish to purchase, can call and examine the premises, and I will take great pleasure in waiting on them.

TERMS OF SALE.

For the Hotel, 1/2 of the purchase money will be required in hand, the balance in two annual payments thereafter, bearing interest of 6 per cent. from date. The purchaser will be required to keep an insurance of $10,000 on the house and furniture until the second payment is made, after the second payment he will be required to keep $5,000 insurance until the third and last payment is made.

The lots Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, on Pike street will be sold for one half in cash, and the balance in six months.

The 2 lots on Walnut street will be sold for cash in hand.
Possession will be given immediately, and a general warranty deed to all the above property, reserving a lien until all the purchase money is paid.

POLLANDS
POWDERS!!!

THIS PREPARATION IS THE DISCOVERY of the Rev. J. W. Polland, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in Goffstown, N. H., and a man deeply beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is the great Liver and Bilious remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine; and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Bilious Powders are a positive cure for Liver Complaint, in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Bilious Derangements. Excellent for headache, constipation, phlegm, blotches, a sallow skin, drowsiness, dizziness, heartburn, palpitation and a most wonderful cure and preventive for Fever and Ague. [We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand for immediate use.]
There are a few important particulars:
1st.—They are the Great Specific for all Bilious Affections.
2d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.
3d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation.
4th.—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.
5th.—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effectual cathartic known.
6th.—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the world for the price, 50 cents.

J. J. GOOD,
Agent for the Singer New Family Sewing Machine,
This machine is without a superior in the world. It runs as fast and easy and with as little noise as any first class machine in market. It will sew from the stoutest leather to the finest bank bill, and makes every stitch perfect. It has, tells, binds, cords and tucks, and is adapted to every variety of work. It is strong, compact, and durable, and will last twenty years, for ordinary family sewing, if not broken by accident or carelessness. But it is useless to parade a long list of the merits of this machine before the public, as the poorest concerns furnish them in the greatest abundance. All can try this machine by calling on the agent and it will prove its own merits.

All kinds of gunsmithing, jobbing and repairing done to guns and pistols. Ammunition of all kinds kept constantly on hand.

I. T. Martin's
WHOLESALE GROCERY!
We are prepared to furnish Jobbers with Sugar, Tea and Coffee, in fact, every thing in the grocery line.

ATCincinnati Prices!!!!
Freight and Drayage added.
We would call the attention of Farmers and others, who are in the habit of purchasing their goods at the river, to our stock and prices. We think we can make it to their interest to lay in their supplies in this market. We think we understand our business; we buy strictly for cash and have adopted the motto of shorts profits and quick sales on a cash basis.

Training and Boarding STABLE.
Pleasant Street, Cynthiana, Ky.
THE undersigned having taken possession of the Livery and Sale stable formerly occupied by David Veach, on Pleasant street, is prepared to board horses at $2.50 cents per week.
Also will break, and handle colts for $1.50 cents per day.
Many stock owners believe that when I break a horse for use, that he is prepared for the turf. Not so. A horse must be broke before he is trained. I train horses for speed at $1.50cts per day, and break them at the same price.
I am a veterinary surgeon of long practice, and I understand all horse diseases. I can prick, nick and dock horses, also straighten crooked tails and castrate. Call and see me.
J. M. SMITH.
